Summary of Position

Join Homestead Learning's Outdoor Learning Program, where education meets adventure! We are seeking passionate educators who thrive in an outdoor, hands-on learning environment. As an Outdoor Learning Guide, you will lead children through nature-based educational experiences, helping them develop resilience, curiosity, and practical life skills. Our program is designed for active, outdoor learning, where students explore, create, and engage with the world around them in a structured yet flexible setting.

A Typical Day in the Outdoor Learning Program:

- Morning Exploration, Nature-Based Activities & Outdoor Hands-On Learning
- Natural Grounding & Mindful Relaxation
- Lunchtime & Free Play in Nature
- Project-Based Learning & Wilderness Skills

- Closing Reflections & Dismissal

Daily Schedule & Expectations for Guides:

- Work hours: 7:30 AM – 12:30 PM, Monday to Thursday
- Ability to adapt to various weather conditions—rain or shine, learning happens outdoors!
- Lead and plan a safe, engaging, and educational outdoor experience for students.

Detailed Responsibilities

- Facilitate Outdoor Learning Experiences
  - Engage students in hands-on, nature-based education.
- Promote Resilience & Independence
  - Encourage problem-solving and self-reliance.
- Foster a Safe & Positive Environment
  - Ensure children's safety while promoting exploration.
- Teach Practical Life & Wilderness Skills
  - Incorporate survival skills, environmental stewardship, and teamwork.
- Assess & Support Student Growth
  - Adapt activities to different learning styles.
- Communicate with Parents
  - Provide updates on student experiences and progress.
- Classroom (Outdoor) Management
  - Maintain order and encourage respectful interactions.
- Collaborate with Colleagues
  - Work as a team to create meaningful learning experiences.
- Attend School Events
  - Support Homestead Learning's mission beyond daily activities.

Character Traits

- Adventurous – Thrives in an outdoor learning setting.
- Flexible & Adaptable – Can adjust to changing weather and student needs.
- Creative & Engaging – Finds innovative ways to connect learning with nature.
- Patient & Encouraging – Supports students as they develop new skills.
- Self-Sufficient & Resourceful – Confident in leading outdoor activities independently.

Requirements

- Valid driver's license & reliable vehicle
- CPR/First Aid Certified (or willing to obtain)
- Background check required
- Able to lift 10 gallon water jug with assistance

Highly Preferred (but not required):

- Experience in outdoor education, environmental science, or wilderness programs
- Knowledge of survival skills, forestry, or hands-on STEM activities

This position is perfect for those who love the outdoors, value experiential learning, and want to inspire the next generation of explorers.
